FULL MEMBERSHIP.

Full members have those rights and responsibilities provided by Bell View's Memorandum and Articles of Association, and membership is open to individuals aged 18 years and over, and to organisations approved by the Board.

Members will receive due notice of Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings, receive annual reports, and other documentation, and have the right to speak and vote at such meetings.

Where there are 10% or more of members they can have the right to call an Extraordinary General Meeting.

Liability of members is limited to a maximum of £1.

Special events will be organised for full members, enabling them to socialise and to meet Trustees, Staff and Volunteers. Members will receive updates on the progress of Bell View, and will be able to express their views, and present their ideas on the running of the organisation.

A quarterly newsletter will be sent out, together with a programme of forthcoming events.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

Life membership will be available to those who are prepared to make a long term commitment to Bell View, with members enjoying the same rights, and responsibilities as full members.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP.

Associate Members will not enjoy any of the rights nor have the responsibilities of membership as set out in the Memorandum and Articles of Association of Bell View.

They will however, receive the quarterly newsletter and programme of forthcoming events.

HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

Honorary Life Membership will only be granted to those whom the Board considers have given loyal and meritorious service to Bell View over a period of time.

Honorary Life Membership carries none of the rights or responsibilities of full membership.

However there is no reason why an Honorary Life Member should not also be a full member or a life member of Bell View.
